

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

HIPAPPIL,

Plaintiff,

v.

MODERATORSOMEONE,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 4:20-2292

Lewis F. Powell, Jr., District Judge,

CONTEMPT OF COURT ORDER FOR NONPARTY KIND YADA

On September 28, 2020, Kind_Yada, a nonparty to this case, claimed that plaintiff's counsel was KindYadaAlt, which was proven to be false after slightly deepened questioning. Kind_Yada did not provide credentials indicating that he was a party of interest in the case, and therefore spoke out of turn. This was a blatant violation of my court decorum, as well as a potential attempt to violate 28 U.S.C. § 454, from the account's name.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Pursuant to Fed. R. of Crim. P. 42(b), Kind_Yada is found summarily guilty of one (1) charge of contempt of court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 401(a), and
2. That Kind_Yada be sentenced to seven (7) days of Arrest-On-Sight status.

/s/ Lewis F. Powell, Jr.

LEWIS F. POWELL, JR.

United States District Judge

Date: September 28, 2020